

This week...

It's Wakana's birthday and James decides he wants to cook something nice for her. They are talking about what he should make.

Lesson Targets

- Cooking for someone
- Deciding what to make

Daily English Conversation

Super Class

What is your favorite thing to cook?

What are they learning how to cook?

* Choose the most appropriate meaning of the word from the four options.

1. marinate

- ☐ dehydrate
- ☐ immerse
- ☐ rise
- ☐ increase

2. season

- ☐ spice
- ☐ stench
- ☐ cook
- ☐ mince

3. blend

- ☐ division
- ☐ carving
- ☐ amalgamate
- ☐ purify

4. enrich

- ☐ compress
- ☐ condense
- ☐ augment
- ☐ curtail

5. garnish

- ☐ disfigure
- ☐ embellish
- ☐ batter
- ☐ blemish

6. peel

- ☐ cover
- ☐ shave
- ☐ mend
- ☐ decorate

James	I want to cook you something really nice for your birthday.
Wakana	Since I have known you, I have never seen you cook anything. Do you want me to help you?
James	No. I can do it by myself. I am confident I will be able to make you something very delicious.
Wakana	I can't wait to taste your food for the first time.
James	Is there anything in particular you would like to eat?
Wakana	Not really. I'm sure whatever you make is going to be fantastic.
James	I am also going to make you a chocolate cake for dessert.
Wakana	Great. That is my favorite. You are such a wonderful husband, James.
James	Thanks. Can you please show me where all the pots and pans are so I can start cooking?

Student A has decided to cook something for Student B. They are talking about what he/she is going to cook.

Key Phrases

- I want to cook you something really nice.
- Is there anything in particular you would like to eat?
- I am also going to for dessert.
- I really want to eat
- I'm sure whatever you make is going to be great!
- I can't wait to taste your food.
- Other

Main Meal

- roast chicken
- roast beef
- tempura
- teriyaki chicken
- pasta
- beef stew
- other

Dessert

- cake
- apple pie
- pancakes
- ice cream
- pudding
- fresh fruit
- other

- ☐ Do you enjoy cooking or is it a hassle for you?
- ☐ How often do you cook for others?
- ☐ Have you ever gone to a cooking class or school?
- ☐ What is something you want to learn how to cook?

Cooking at home is much healthier than eating out.

A

Agree

B

Disagree

American Slang

- cup of joe – a cup of coffee
I'm going to take a break to have a cup of joe.
 - fix a plate – to put together a plate/dish of food
I'm feeling hungry, so I'm going to quickly fix a plate.
-

Australian Slang

- barbie – barbecue cooking outdoors
Let's have a barbie with our friends this weekend.
 - dingo's breakfast – no breakfast at all
I had a dingo's breakfast this morning, so I can't wait for lunch!
-

British Slang

- wolf down – to eat something very quickly, like a starving wolf
Hurry up and wolf down your food, we've got to catch the train soon.
- bangers and mash – a dish made of sausages and mashed potatoes
My mum used to make bangers and mash every week.

Scott

Tina

Long Weekend

Long weekends were designed to ease pressure on workers and to give them a break. It's something that almost everyone looks forward to. Some people like to travel whereas others like to just relax at home. Next week Scott suggests to Tina they go away for a couple of nights on their long weekend.